November Masses for Deceased.

November - a sacred time when we remember especially those who have gone before us. As we pray for the souls of the departed, we are reminded of the hope of eternal life and the comfort of God's love.

Our Annual Mass for the Deceased, especially those who have died since last November, will be celebrated as follows:

Monday, 17th November at 7:00 PM
St. Patrick's Church, Keady

Tuesday, 18th November at 7:00 PM
St. Joseph's Church, Madden

Thursday, 20th November at 7:00 PM
St. Mochua's Church, Derrynoose

Mass of the Angels
Tuesday, 25th November at 7:00PM, Madden

A special candle will be placed in front of the altar alongside the names of those who have died since last November. At the end of Mass a family member is welcome to come forward and take this candle home as a remembrance.

St. Malachy (born 1094, Armagh - died November 2/3, 1148, Clairvaux, France; canonized 1190; feast day November 3) was a celebrated Archbishop and Papal Legate who became a dominant figure of church reform in 12th-century Ireland.
Malachy was educated at Armagh where he was ordained a Priest in 1119. He was appointed vicar in Armagh by Archbishop Ceallach (Celsus) during the latter's absence from Armagh to administer the bishopric of Dublin.

November 6th is kept in Ireland as the Feast of All Saints of Ireland
We pray : Grant, O Lord, an increase of Thy Grace to us who celebrate the memory of all the Saints of our Island; that as, on earth, we rejoice to be one with them in race, so, in Heaven, we may deserve to share with them an inheritance of bliss. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Lord God, Whose days are without end and whose mercies beyond counting, keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown.
Let your spirit guide our days on earth in the ways of holiness and justice, that we may serve you in union with the whole Church, sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love. And when our earthly journey is ended, lead us rejoicing into your Kingdom, where you live for ever and ever. Amen
